

The BSE has completed a training program for employees of ARB24 TV channel

The Baku Stock Exchange has completed a training program for ARB24 employees to improve their knowledge of capital markets. The trainings provided detailed information about capital markets and instruments, including local stock exchange operations, market segments, traded instruments and their characteristics as part of the Listing Advisory Program for Economically Focused Correspondents and Editors.

At the end of the training, the participants were presented with certificates.